DELAYED REGISTRATION LAW

(1937 Session Laws, Chapter 139, Section 4)

Where the birth of a child born prior to the effective date of Chapter 191, 1911 Session Laws, has not been recorded, or in case of failure to report any birth which has occurred subsequent to such date, such report may be received and filed by the local registrar for record in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purposes and uses prescribed in Chapter 2, Title 38, Idaho Code Annotated, when such report is accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician or midwife, or by affidavits of the father or mother of the child, or if neither father or mother of the child is living or accessible, of the nearest of kin or guardian, or some person having direct knowledge in the premises.

April 7th, 1920.

To Whom it may concern:-

This is to certify that about the year 1898 I attended Mrs Walter A. Lyon at childbirth, at Weiser, Idaho. At that time a daughter was born and named Daphney St. Elmo Lyon. At that time no official records were kept and my own personal books, up to the date when I removed from Weiser ten years ago, have been lost, so that I can not give positive date, as to day and month. Her parents were American birth and came to Idaho from Ohio about 1896 or 1897. Her father was a blacksmith and mechanic by trade.

Very truly,
